If you're a student who is interested in a career in arbitration, this seminar is for you!

Come along and hear from lawyers in private practice and in-house about what it's really like to work in the field. And hear different perspectives about the career paths open to arbitration lawyers, from acting as counsel in complex arbitration matters, to advising your company's management in an in-house role, to running an arbitral process from an institutional perspective, and to acting as arbitrator.

A range of panellists will share their experiences, anecdotes and top tips about pursuing a career in arbitration. This promises to be a lively and insightful seminar and there will be an opportunity to mingle over nibbles afterwards.

Space is limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis.
