DOMESTIC ARBITRATION RULES

Schedule of Fees

(All amounts are in Hong Kong Dollars, hereinafter "HKD")

Effective 1 November 2014

The following fees apply to all arbitrations governed by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre Domestic Arbitration Rules in force on 1 November 2014 (the "Rules").

Appointment Fee

When submitting a request for HKIAC to appoint an arbitrator pursuant to Articles 2.1 and 3.2 of the Rules, an appointment fee is payable. The fee for appointing one arbitrator is HKD 8,000.

Fees for a Member of the HKIAC Secretariat to Act as "Arbitration Administrator"

Where the parties have agreed to the appointment of the Secretary General of HKIAC, or such person as may be designated by the Secretary-General, as arbitration administrator pursuant to Article 4.5 of the Rules, HKIAC will charge an hourly rate of HKD 600 for time spent as arbitration administrator.

All expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the specific matter will also be charged to the parties.

Fundholding Fees

Where, pursuant to Article 16 of the Rules, an Arbitrator directs the parties to make one or more deposits to HKIAC to secure the Arbitrator's fees and expenses, an administrative fee of HKD 4,000 per party per annum is payable on receipt of the funds and every year thereafter.

Unless otherwise directed, all expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with the specific matter will be deducted from the funds held by HKIAC.

Quarterly statement of account shall be sent to the Arbitrator and the parties.

HKIAC shall not bear any liability in respect of funds held on behalf of the Arbitrator.
