Current Position

Partner and Global Co-Chair of International Arbitration (Asia), DLA Piper

Professional Experience

Yu-Jin Tay is a partner and global co-chair of DLA Piper's international arbitration practice, based in Singapore. He has practised international arbitration in Paris, London and Washington DC and specialises in international arbitrations arising from M&A, joint venture, energy, construction and infrastructure, technology and general commercial disputes. Since 2001, he has had experience advising and representing investors and governments in investment treaty arbitrations. In 2013, he was designated by the Government of Timor-Leste to ICSID's Panels of Arbitrators and Conciliators. In 2011, Mr Tay was one among few Asian lawyers featured in Global Arbitration Review's global 45 under 45 ranking. He has been listed annually as a leading individual in global legal directories including GAR's International Who's Who of Commercial Arbitration (since 2010), Chambers Asia-Pacific and Asia-Pacific Legal 500 (since 2008), the Euromoney Guide to the World's Leading Experts in Commercial Arbitration (since 2006) and Benchmark Litigation (ranked Local Disputes Star, 2013).

Arbitration Experience

Mr Tay sits regularly as an arbitrator (sole, co-arbitrator and presiding) in SIAC, ICC, LCIA and ad hoc arbitrations. He is a member of various panels of arbitrators including the SIAC, ICSID, KLRCA, KCAB, VIAC and PIAC. As counsel, Mr Tay has experience of over 70 arbitrations under the rules of most leading arbitral institutions and in most of the world's significant arbitral seats, involving disputes across the world, particularly Asia.
