

We are pleased to invite you to a HK45 seminar:

Autumn Seminar 2012 - “WHAT CLIENTS WANT”

Andy Soh (Executive Counsel, Litigation and Investigations, Asia of GE) will tell us what clients' concerns are with the modern international arbitration process, and offer some thoughts and suggestions on how to address those concerns. He will also explore what users would like to see from arbitrators, arbitral institutions, and outside counsel.

Chaired by John Choong of Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, reaction will come from panellists Cameron Hassall of Clifford Chance and James Rogers of Fulbright & Jaworski

| | |
|------------------|--|
| DATE | Tuesday, 20 November 2012 |
| TIME | 6:00pm |
| VENUE | Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, 38 th Floor, Two Exchange Square, 8 Connaught Place, Hong Kong |
| SPEAKERS | Andy Soh (GE) Cameron Hassall (Clifford Chance) James Rogers (Fulbright & Jaworski) |
| MODERATOR | John Choong (Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer) |
| PROGRAMME | 6:00pm Registration 6:15pm Seminar on “What Clients Want” followed by panel discussion 7:30pm Drinks reception |
| RSVP | by Friday, 16 November 2012 by clicking here or by sending an email to hk45@hkiac.org , with your name, email and your organisation. |

About HK45

HK45 is a group formed for professionals who are under 45 years of age and who are interested in the practice of arbitration in Hong Kong. The mission of the group is to promote the interest in and knowledge of issues relating to arbitration, and thus strengthening the arbitration community in Hong Kong. It is intended to provide opportunities for both professional development and social interaction. Membership of HK45 is free.

Admission to the seminar is free, but only with prior registration
(Membership in HK45 is free and seminar attendees may sign up at the door)

With grateful thanks to the following sponsors of this HK45 event

ALLEN & OVERY

