

THE 10TH FRANKFURT INVESTMENT ARBITRATION HK PRACTICE MOOT

The Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC) invites you to the HK Practice Moot in preparation for the 10th Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot

Venue: Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre
38/F Two Exchange Square, Hong Kong

Dates: 16-17 February 2017
The HK Practice Moot will start with a welcome tea reception on 16 February, followed by a full day of mooting on 17 February 2017.

The HKIAC is pleased to introduce the “HKIAC Capacity Building Scholarship” this year to award two participants in the HK Practice Moot.

The HK Practice Moot provides teams in the Asia-Pacific region with experience in the practice of investment arbitration in a simulated arbitration hearing setting as well as an opportunity to network with other teams and members of the Hong Kong Arbitration Community.

HKIAC Capacity Building Scholarship:

The HKIAC Capacity Building Scholarship (HKCBS) is a initiative to promote the development of investment arbitration in Asia and to also build the next generation of arbitrators. The aim of the scholarship is to provide students from developing jurisdictions within Asia (specifically Belt and Road countries) a unique opportunity to enhance knowledge of international arbitration and international investment arbitration through a scholarship funded placements at HKIAC and a leading law firm in HK.
